

Data Usage Information – Da Fit App

App name: Da Fit

Bluetooth connection required for smartwatch pairing.

User account may be required depending on app version and features.

Health data may be collected: steps, heart rate, sleep, activity records.

Notification access may be requested to display calls and messages on the smartwatch.

Location permission may be requested by the mobile operating system for Bluetooth scanning.

Users can manage permissions in device settings.

Data processing and privacy controls are available within the Da Fit application.