

How to Play

1. Assign

Give each player a colored number card. Place it in front of you.

2. Deal

Give each player a white voting card with every number except the one on their colored number card.

3. Play

Each round, repeat the pattern.

Question

Put the black question deck in the middle and draw the first one or make up a question of your own.

Vote

Using your white voting cards vote for the player that's best described by the question.

Reveal

The player who drew the question card collects the votes and reveals them to the group.

Guess

For each vote received, players can guess someone who voted for them. When a correct guess is made the truth is revealed.
