

1. Before installation, Please tear out the "kraft paper protective sheets" or "transparent plastic protective film".

2. After removing the protective film, wash it with cold water and install it.

3. The shading version nests have "one shading front panel" and "one transparent front panel." You just need to install one of them.