Take it to the skies! Introducing the Next Level Racing® Flight Simulator Lite, the first foldable flight cockpit. The Flight Simulator Lite is the perfect cockpit for users that have limited space but still demand a rigid and immersive flight solution. To suit both Commercial and Combat flight enthusiasts, the Flight Simulator Lite is compatible with yokes, joystick, and rudders. It is pre-drilled for all major racing electronics, including racing and flight. The innovative Next Level Racing® Hubs provide rigidity while allowing quick setup and easy folding functionality for storage.
