

User Guide

Safety shoes are special shoes that offer protection and thus increase safety. This protection can differ, ranging from protection of the feet against sharp objects to protect against wetness.

A safety shoe is one of the personal protective equipment (PPE). There are more resources, such as hearing protection, hand protection, and face protection.

- How often a new safety shoe
On average, people need new safety shoes once a year. If the boots are broken or worn, You must replace them more often. Of course, it also depends on the person. Some people wear safety shoes more often than others. The replacement of safety shoes depends on the environment, the frequency of use, and maintenance. Pay attention to the following things to see if your safety shoes need to be replaced:

Are there any cracks or tears in it?

Are there holes in it?

Is the sole loose, broken, or perforated?

Is the anti-slip profile worn out?

Are the steel toes dented?

Is the lining around the steel toe caps still intact?

•

If the safety shoe has one of the above defects, you should replace it.

Limited Warranty

Your safety shoes have been manufactured using the highest quality materials and artistry. Before leaving the factory, all azapla products have been inspected and found free of defects. This Limited Warranty applies to these safety shoes only.

This limited warranty is in addition to, and not a substitute for, your legal rights and remedies. They take priority to the extent that this warranty is inconsistent with any of your legal rights. For example, consumer laws across the European Union provide statutory warranty rights in addition to the coverage you receive from this limited warranty; for information on EU- broad consumer laws, please visit the European consumer enter website at http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/contact_en/html.

The provisions of this limited warranty apply only to the original purchaser and are not transferable. This Limited Warranty is valid for a period of 180-days from the date of the initial retail purchase. Keep your original sales receipt with this document, as proof of purchase will be required and must accompany warranty claims, or the limited warranty will be invalid.

If you find a manufacturing defect on these safety shoes during the warranty period, don't hesitate to contact the azapla customer support listed in this manual. Suppose the item is returned as directed by azapla customer support. In that case, customer support will inspect the item and determine the claim's validity. I suppose the warranty provisions cover the article; it will be repaired or replaced with the same or comparable thing (at Azapla's choice) at no charge to you.

Other than this warranty, and other legal rights in your country, no other warranties are implied. To the extent possible in your country, in no event shall Azapla be liable to you or any third party for direct or consequential damages arising from the use of your Azapla safety shoes or Azapla or its agents and employees actions (including the manufacture of the product). If your country does not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, this limitation or exclusion does not apply to you.

You should note that this limited warranty does not apply in the following circumstances: If the safety shoes are subject to negligence, abnormal use or application, accident, improper operation or contrary to operating instructions, improper maintenance or storage; If the safety shoes are subject to damage by circumstances beyond Azapla's control, including but not limited to tears, abrasions, ordinary wear and tear, and damage caused by exposure to fire, flood, freezing rain, or other external environmental forces; To parts and components not sold by azapla; and To unauthorized alterations, repairs, or disassembly to the Azapla by anyone other than azapla personnel.

Read the Owner's chapter carefully and follow all instructions regarding proper operation and maintenance of your Azapla safety shoes. Always inspect your product before use. This limited warranty will be void if use instructions are not followed.
