

Oxford Aquatex Double Bicycle Cover

More Information

Options & Sizing

Description:

The Oxford Aquatex bicycle cover is a lightweight bike cover for use indoors and outdoors. As you would expect from the worlds best-selling cycle cover it comes packed with useful features and built to last.

Designed for indoor/outdoor use it offers protection against rain and dust. Local police initiatives have shown that bike covers can be a useful anti-theft device - if a thief can't see what kind of bicycle is underneath they are less likely to target it. Combine with one of our award winning chain locks to add an additional layer of defence against any would-be bike thief.

Key Features

- Double-stitched 100 Denier polyester for strength and durability
- Complete exterior and interior protection. Can be used both as an outdoor rain cover and an indoor dust cover
