

ONAK

WARNING

Our products are specifically designed with safety in mind. The use of this product involves certain risks, it can be physically demanding and dangerous. Use of this product and participation in water sports involve inherent risk of serious injury or death. We are not liable for any accidents caused by the use or misuse of the canoe. By using it you accept the risks and take responsibility.

TO REDUCE RISKS FOLLOW THESE RULES

Read the Owners Manual before using this product | Strictly follow the instructions in the Build Manual, if the board is not assembled correctly it can lose its structural integrity and collapse | Make sure you are physically fit before you begin water activities and do not exceed your abilities | Obtain training in a safe use of your water board from a qualified instructor and build your experience in a controlled environment | Do not exceed the maximum load of the board | Balance the weight distribution of passengers and gear on your board | Wear a life vest | Take a floating device | Check weather and water conditions | Scout unfamiliar waters, avoid unsafe conditions, hazardous conditions, heavy flooding, tidal changes, large waves, fast moving currents | Dress appropriately for weather conditions, cold weather and / or cold water can cause hypothermia |

www.onakcanoes.com