

face steamer (skin rejuvenation beauty apparatus)

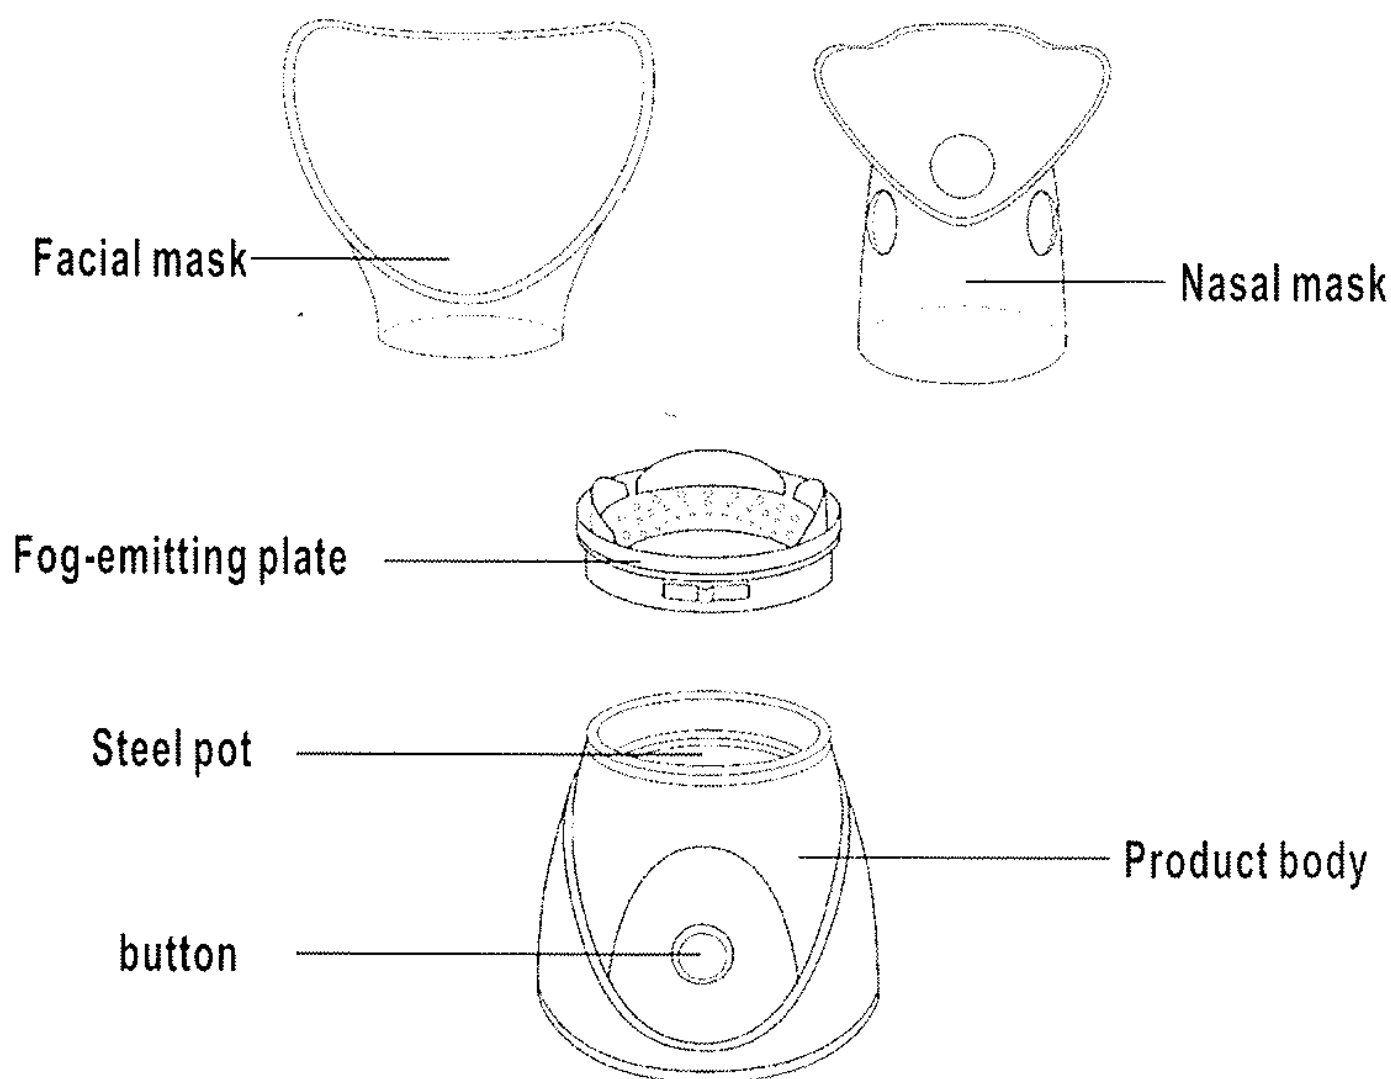

Product operating manual

Face cleaning moisturizing sauna

face steamer (skin rejuvenation beauty apparatus)

Product structure

This picture is only for reference

Operation method

- Hold the product body with your left hand, use the right hand to grasp the fog-emitting plate and turn it anti-clockwise, take down the fog-emitting plate
- Use water cup to pour in water into the stainless steel pot about its four fifth volume
- Hold the product body with your left hand, use the right hand to grasp the fog-emitting plate and turn it clockwise, install the fog-emitting plate.
- Select facial mask or nasal mask and install it on the fog-emitting plate.
- Connect with power source, voltage is the same with the rated voltage of the product
- Press product button after connecting with power source
- It can be used after there is steam emitting from facial mask or nasal mask
- When using facial mask steaming the face, fog-emitting increases while pushing button on the fog-emitting plate to left; when using nasal mask steaming the nose, fog-emitting decreases while pushing the button on the fog-emitting plate to right

Attention

- The product must be used in a flat and secure place. The product can only provide good and safe steaming function when it is assembled correctly
- If the electrical socket outlet connected with the product has a poor contact, it will lead to the plug of the product warmed up. Please ensure that the electrical socket outlet connected with the product is good
- Please do not use the product while using insect repellent or chemical substance indoors
- Please do not use the product near bath tub, shower, lavatory or any other vessel with water

- While the product is heated without water in normal use, the button indication light will automatically flicker. The product is under protection, it can be restarted for normal use by pressing the start button after putting in some water
- The product should be cleaned to avoid the accumulation of grease and other residues.
- It is recommended to use purified water or distilled water so as to avoid incrustation
- The remnant water in the steel pot must be poured out after using the product and the product should be scrubbed clean with soft cloth so as to extend the service life
- If the power line is damaged, please go to the repair place designated by the manufacturer and it should be replaced by professionals
- The water injection volume of this appliance should not exceed the marking line of maximum stage and it is prohibited to heat the product without water

Specification and parameter

Rated voltage: AC110V~240V

Rated steam:: 218ml/h

Rated frequency: 50Hz/60Hz

Net weight: 0.55kg

Rated power: 130W

Anti-electric shock class: II class

Rated volume : 60ml

M-Iconic®