HOW IT WORKS:

As a Neanderthal Poet, how do you get your primitive friends to guess the word "campfire" using only words with one syllable?

You might say:

Hot place
where you roast
soft white cube

If your team guesses correctly YOU GET POINTS!

But if you accidentally use words with more than one syllable (like "marshmallow") the other team gets to hit you with the NO! Stick and steals your points.

Get your team to guess as many words and phrases as possible before time runs out to dominate your prehistoric rivals!
