

professional use.

la notice
the instructions

CE

115111

compliance with the provisions of EN 13071, 2007, EN 14362-1: 2012

do not touch the tip in contact with any flame during use. It should be kept during the manipulation at a safe distance from the patient, with all the care and attention required.

Do not touch the tip. This is indicated for the safety of the patient. It is indicated for maintenance

Do not touch the tip, before de-capping the tip.