

HEIMDALL'S ARMORY - HOFUD

THE LEGEND

Forged from shards of Bifrost, the bridge between Asgard and Midgaard, Hofud is infused with magic from both worlds. Created to protect the world of mankind, Hofud is the weapon that stands between victory and total annihilation.

Once drawn, Hofud will create havoc on the battlefield. It will deliver the first as well as the last kill and it will be reborn in the new world.

Hofud is an overwhelming responsibility - pick it up and the responsibility will be yours.
